The minutes for 1/29 approved.

NOPD Report:

Sam Palumbo delivered a report on the MCSD Crime Trends for January 2018. Among other details, he reported that there were 33 crimes for this month, compared to 47 crimes reported in January 2017.

Coverage Discussion:

Jim Olsen explained Sgt. Palumbo's efforts to fill in gaps during Mardi Gras season. The Citizen's Academy Class was explained and Jim Olsen will inquire as to when there is another class.

Financial Report:

Jim Olsen reported that there was approximately $392K cash on hand at the end of January.

Website:

Tung Ly delivered a report on the status of the MCSD website. Although our former vendor Point to Point did not pass on the info to transfer the control of the website, Tung believes he fixed the problems as of this afternoon.

Status of Vehicles:

Jim Olsen gave report updating the new vehicle's preparation.

Discussion of Modified App:

Jim Olsen met with Bob Sims and discussed the financial aspect of employing the app. The initial expenditure would be approx. $1700 and the remaining charges would run the total cost to about $5,100 per year.

Discussion of Parcel Fee adjustments 2019 Statute renewal.

Mike Riehlmann will begin working on revising the statute language with an eye to including rental and condo properties not currently paying a fee.

Public Comments:

Wendy Laker voiced her concerns about lack of civility from MCSD personnel. Mary Moises asked questions about time records and trip sheets.
