ADJOURNMENT / OTHER BUSINESS

The Board confirmed the next meeting date as April 14, 2020.

Mr. Wertz updated the board members regarding software upgrades and going paperless. He also updated the board on JRI funds and what the funds were being used for (backlog of cases). He also stated that the balance in the sexual assault fund is $3.35 million and the balance in the general CVR fund is $279,000. Lost wages in sexual assault fund are currently being paid out of the general CVR fund and cannot be paid out of the S/A fund. A bill was submitted to the Legislature to allow software maintenance and the salary of a CVR staff member to be paid out of the S/A fund.

Permission was also requested and given to pay FMEs that are $500 or less through emergency awards in order to save processing time and to get the payments to the providers more quickly.

The Board requested that Kit numbers be put on the sexual assault applications to insure that an FME was done. The board also requested that dates of service be put on the summary sheets.

Ms. Henderson made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Mr. Guillory seconded the motion. Ms. Tonkovich adjourned the meeting at 10:55 a.m.
