*Public Comment

Public comment is requested prior to each vote (La. R.S. 42:14)

A public comment period shall be held during each board meeting. Persons desiring to present comments shall notify the executive director of the board prior to the beginning of the meeting. However, to assure that an opportunity is afforded to all persons who desire to make comments, the chairman shall inquire at the beginning of the meeting if there are additional persons present who wish to comment. The chairman shall allot the time available for the public comments in an equitable manner among those persons desiring to comment. Each person making public comments shall identify himself and the group, organization, company, or entity he represents, if any. (Louisiana Physical Therapy Board Rule §105.H.)
