VII. New Business

A. 2019 Symposium

There was discussion was about other ways to implement the symposium with some new ideas. Some suggested having it at a state park and do more outdoor programming. This could include a variety of activities and more outdoor interaction at the Symposium. The Symposium has traditionally been held at a hotel in February. Some suggested changing the focus and do more outdoors. The problem may be that February may be a poor month for an outside symposium for PD. Perhaps we should change the time of year. Matt suggested that we poll past attendees. Craig questioned what is missing at the Symposium, the options for lodging and how to change it up. State Parks may work, there are various venues in these two places. The whole group liked the idea of more outdoor activities. Some suggested a theme of “being an Outdoor Teacher” at the outdoor Symposium. There could be a variety of hands on activities for various topics. Perhaps we can get more wildlife educators to participate and share ideas. There was a mention of get some data about changing the Symposium and get some feedback. Dean Suggested areas for kids in the Northeastern part of the state with more focus on Nature.

Another question was “would our symposium be more for teachers or for kids? Some suggestions about outdoor symposium were ATV trip, farmland, stock a pond, age groups for fishing. Someone said it sounded like LDWF Hunting Fishing Day. There was also a discussion of having an outdoor day activity across the state in several areas all on the same day. Thomas mentioned that a plan needs to be developed for a statewide celebration.

B. Strategic Plan

Venise discussed that we need to develop a strategic plan for the organization and asked if anyone was interested in working on this task. Teachers should be a part of creating the strategic plan and are welcome to participate. Part of the process is to make sure that we are focusing on what is mandated.
