Rules of Decorum

Section 1. Board Intent for Rules of Decorum. The business of the Crime Victims Reparations Program is conducted at board meetings by the CVR Board. All Board meetings are open to the public, but the public's participation is permitted only at designated times for public comment and in the manner set forth in these rules. Public comment is generally not permitted during work sessions of the board, although the public is encouraged to attend such sessions and express comments in writing or other communication prior to or after those meetings.

In order for the board to conduct its business in a manner completely open to the public, rules of decorum are necessary. Board meetings can last several hours, which may limit the practical ability for the public to participate and the effectiveness of staff to make presentations and board members to discuss applications for reparations and make decisions. The intent of these rules is to:

1. Provide a safe and secure setting for the board and the public to attend to its business.
2. Enable the board to conduct its deliberative process without interruption in a manner that can be heard and viewed by all in attendance.
3. Ensure that the public has a full opportunity to be heard during public hearings and open comment periods of board meetings.
4. Facilitate transparency in the conduct of board meetings so that all persons have the opportunity to observe and hear all of the board discussion and votes.
5. State specific rules so that all participants may know the rules in advance and are subject to them.
6. Limit interruptions, unreasonable delay, or duplication of comments, presentations, or discussion.
7. Develop an atmosphere of civility that is respectful of diverse opinions and allows presentation of positions that vary from those of others at the meeting without insults or intimidation.
8. Balance the need for the board to conduct effective meetings without the meetings extending for an unreasonable length of time with the need to give a full opportunity for the public to be heard.

9. Facilitate board meetings as business meetings; therefore public comments should relate to the business of the board and, as such, be addressed to the board as a whole, which conducts its business.

10. Adopt these rules of decorum as the standard of conduct at meetings of the CVR Board and staff.

Section 2 . Rules of Decorum for the Public. During all times a meeting of the CVR Board is being conducted, the following rules shall apply:

1. Only members of the board, its consultants and staff can be seated at the meeting room table. Other seating in the audience is provided for the public, claim investigators of the board, or guests.

2. Prior to addressing the board, a person shall sign-up with the board's staff to provide for the meeting record.

3. All public comment to the board shall be only after the speaker is acknowledged by the chair, shall be addressed to the board as a whole, and is limited to the amount of time specified by the chair, which is typically three minutes.

4. While in attendance at a board meeting, no attendee shall disrupt, disturb, or otherwise impede the orderly conduct of any board meeting by any means in a manner that obstructs the business of the meeting. Disorderly conduct also includes failing to obey any lawful order of the chair to be seated, leave the meeting room, or refrain from addressing the Board.

5. No attendee shall make threats or other forms of intimidation against any person in the board meeting room or any staff member of LCLE, or be in possession of any weapon or firearm while in the board meeting room unless the attendee possesses a valid permit.

6. To maintain the fire code occupancy limits and allow for safe exit, unless addressing the board or entering or leaving the board meeting room, all persons in the audience shall remain seated in the seats provided.

7. All persons in the board meeting room shall silence all cell phones, pagers, and other electronic devices to prevent disruption at the meeting.

8. No person at any board meeting shall be in a state of intoxication caused by the person's use of alcohol or drugs.

9. Members of the public shall make every effort to be respectful at all times of those with opposing views.

10. No sign shall be displayed in board chambers in a manner that blocks the view of another person or in a manner that would violate subsection 6 above.

11. Persons desiring to participate in the meeting should utilize appropriate protective health measures and observe the recommended and appropriate social distancing.

Section 3. Enforcement of Decorum. The chair of the CVR Board is responsible for maintaining the order and decorum of meetings. The board chair may order any person who fails to observe these rules of decorum to be removed from the board meeting room.

1. The chair may interrupt any speaker who is violating these rules of decorum or disrupting a meeting.

2. The chair officer shall attempt to provide a verbal warning to any attendee or particular speaker that may be violating these rules of decorum, but such verbal warning shall not be required as a condition of removing an offender from the board meeting room.

3. These enforcement provisions are in addition to the authority held by any peace officer in attendance to maintain order pursuant to the officer's lawful authority.

4. Any person removed from the board meeting room shall be excluded from further attendance at the meeting from which the person has been removed, unless permission to attend is granted upon the motion adopted by a majority vote of the board.

5. Any person who has been removed from a meeting may be charged with a violation of any applicable provision of the Louisiana Revised Statutes.

6. In addition, by vote of the board, any person removed from a meeting may be excluded from attendance at board meetings for thirty (30) days after such removal. A longer period of prohibition from attendance at board meetings may be determined by the board by a vote, if the person has been removed from the board chambers or meeting room in the past twenty-four months for violation of these rules of decorum, or the board determines that the attendee's conduct was so severe as to necessitate a longer period of prohibition.

7. A person prohibited from attendance at board meetings may request a hearing to dispute prohibition. The scope of the hearing will be limited to the following:

(1) The nature and extent of the behavior resulting in the suspension; and

(2) If applicable, whether there was a prior removal in the past twenty-four months. The hearing officer will forward a recommendation to the board to affirm the sanction, modify the sanction, or to remove the sanction for the board's consideration at a subsequent meeting of the board.

8. In addition to any other authority of the CVR board chair, the chair may call a recess during which time the members of the board shall leave the meeting room. Similarly, if necessary for the safety of the board and public, the chair may order the board meeting room cleared of all attendees, and call a recess, adjourn or continue the meeting until another date.

Section 4. Interpretation of Rules. These rules are intended to support the operation of the board as noted above. These rules are not to be used to limit public participation or board debate, but to enable the effective functioning of the board. Either the board or the board chair may temporarily suspend these rules or grant exceptions in order to effectuate their intent.

* Adopted by the CVR board on October 11, 2022.
